

Women take their gifts to Prison

We have all heard stories of “jail house” conversions; those who call on God while incarcerated. Then upon release they succumb to trials and temptations and make the same damaging choices that got them into prison in the first place. Many return through the revolving door repeatedly.

Last month we shared stories of women who are out of prison and have been walking faithfully with the Lord for several years. They will not return to their old lifestyle or ever go back to prison. They are Daughters walking out their Destiny with the Lord.

What made the difference for them? When asked they responded with two main reasons. First, they got more than head knowledge of the gospel, which is the salvation message. They began a one-on-one relationship with Jesus. They began to love Him and understand just how much He loves them. Second, women disciples them with God’s Word on the inside and welcomed them when they were released. Not always the same women, but the same love and the same truth, all sisters in the body of Christ.

So what made the difference? Relationships. This is what life and love is all about. Our relationship with God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit has brought us to the place in life where we can truly love others. We have sat at the feet of His teachings for years and now we must share what He has given us, women of faith reaching His Daughters on the inside.

Jacquelyn is a single mom and business owner in California. She is content, healthy and loves Jesus. She worked hard for everything she has, making choices along the way that led her to where she is today. God reached the desire of her heart when He called her to go into the prisons and be an example of what making the right choices looks like. She teaches women inmates how to fight for their future, make Godly choices and grab hold of their destiny no matter what the world may say they are capable of achieving. Jacquelyn is a woman of faith reaching women inside.

Katherine is married, a mom and involved in kingdom business worldwide. As many have, she struggled to overcome her own lies. Because of this she has a love and empathy for broken women. Along with her teaching partner, Bev, she goes into prisons and through the Word of God she helps reveal the lies and heal women of the bondages that have held them captive for years. Katherine also helps direct Daughters of Destiny on a national level. She is a woman of faith sharing with broken women.

Liz is a pastor’s wife, mom and on fire for Jesus. She touches women inside with her messages of truth and joy and welcomes them into the church upon release. She also, leads women from their church to share the blessings God has given them with these broken women. Liz is a woman of faith loving women in need.

Where are you? What has God given you to share with hurting women? A word, your time, or resources? Please contact us here at Daughters of Destiny to see how you may join with the women across the country that are reaching His Daughters inside.

“We are asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, so that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to Him, bearing fruit in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God.” Colossians 1:9-10

COMPUTER BASED TRAINING

Daughters of Destiny is charting a new course in volunteer training. June of 2010 we will launch our new website with computer based training for volunteers throughout the U.S. As women respond to God's call to disciple His daughters on the inside of correctional facilities and help them upon reentry they will be equipped and ready for service with high impact online training materials. More to come....
