INTO THE LIGHT

Angela

One goes through life with a changed perspective when she has opened her heart to the pain carried by the souls I saw in the women's prison. My comfort, my nice things, my tasty food were all seen through eyes that had seen something very different only a few days before. Thanks be to God for making this real place, these real people, real to me. Before it was only a dim conjecture of my imagination, fueled by brief exposures to "reality" television.

I was blessed and shocked at the same time. The depth of hurt, isolation, and in some, manipulation or rebellion obvious in the eyes of the women was agonizing to see. The faces of many of them went home with me. I was amazed at how the team was able to speak very directly to the women about their lives and the state they were in. Some of the women that I supposed would be the least likely to be responsive were the ones who came forward at the end of the night.

I know the Lord is leading me out of the wilderness and calling me to step into a more responsible role. I've been ducking it for years. When I told my friend that I spoke for a few minutes and that I hadn't really done that before, she reminded me that only a few weeks before I had spoken at my infant son's memorial service. So I guess God is going to do whatever it takes to get me to stop hanging back.

Thank you for allowing me to join in this ministry claiming territory for God that previously belonged to the enemy. You are tilling soil, sowing seed and harvesting as God taught us to do. Daughters of Destiny is meeting needs in one of the places specifically mentioned by Christ that we often ignore. You have changed that for me.

"So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded. You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised. For in just a very little while, He who is coming will come and will not delay. But my righteous one will live by faith. And if he shrinks back, I will not be pleased with him." But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed but of those who believe and are saved." Hebrews 10:35-39 ✨

Women 4 Women

Would you like to share your faith with a woman inside, but don't feel led to go into a prison? Well, Women-4-Women discipleship correspondence may be right for you. Many ladies who come to faith in Jesus Christ while inside prison want a spiritual sister to help them grow. Someone she may ask questions of and share her struggles and triumphs with. Have you sat at the feet of Christ for years and learned to walk in His ways? You could be a tremendous blessing to a new sister in Christ. # Daughters FREE

Dawn Suffering abuse of every kind from alcoholic parents who divorced when she was eight years old Dawn felt unloved and alone. "Then at 17 I found the love of my life, my husband." Dawn finally felt loved, but when he was suddenly killed in a car accident she spiraled into a life of destruction. "I couldn't tolerate the pain inside. I had no hope. I just wanted to die. So I did drugs to the point of being homeless and living on the streets as a prostitute. I ate out of dumpsters and lived in crack houses."

Dawn was finally arrested, and charged with 46 felonies. She went to prison and that is where she gave her life to Jesus. "I was rescued not arrested. Jesus totally and completely changed my life." Since her release Dawn has worked hard to continue to grow closer to Jesus and become the woman He destined her to be. She is in her fourth year of college, has a Christian re-entry home for women and shares her testimony in prisons.

"Therefore if anyone is in CHRIST, she is a new creation, old things have passed away; behold all things are new." 2 Corinthians 5:17

Alysia "GET ON THE FLOOR" and "DON'T MOVE"! Those were the words Alysia heard the day God finally got her attention. The SWAT team had just shot her boyfriend and had her in their sites. Until now her life had been one drug induced day after another; writing bad checks to pay the bill. "I was eventually sentenced to TEN years of prison. Devastation, fear and guilt overwhelmed me."

Somewhere in transit she was handed The New Believers Bible. It was easy to read and became her new best friend. "I had accepted Jesus in jail a couple years before but had not submitted my life to Him." Now God had her heart and step by step Alysia began to seek His will, growing in her faith.

When Alysia was released she found a church that welcomed her into their fold. "I have been clean for nine years, but I know I am an addict and will always have to call on God for strength." Today, Alysia has a loving husband and is actually working at a check making company. "Sometimes it is difficult to grasp that our Savior has forgiven me of everything I've done, but I am so glad He did. He is so amazing." Alysia is a Daughter of Destiny bought back and transformed by the King of Kings, Jesus!

"God is in the midst of her; she will not be moved: God will help her when morning dawns." Psalm 46:5
